ABOUT OUR JUDGE

Mark began his involvement with pedigree dogs almost 40 years ago when he was 10 years old, exhibiting his first breed, Afghan Hounds.

He began judging when he was 16 years old, having passed Afghan Hound breed council judging exams and was also a finalist at the Junior Handling Association finals in the same year. In 30 years of judging he has been approved to judge over 50 breeds across the Hound, Utility, Toy and Terrier Groups. Mark is approved to judge the Hound, Utility and Toy Group and Best in Show at Championship Show level in the UK. He has judged extensively all over the world including many national all breed "Winners Shows" and also at numerous National Specialties in various breeds.

He has judged at Crufts on numerous occasions, he will be judging the Hound Group in 2020 and has judged at other notable prestigious shows including BIS at Santa Barbara Kennel Club in the USA.

Mark has owned/bred around 20 UK Champions across Afghan Hounds, Miniature Wirehaired Dachshunds, PBGV's, Ibizan Hounds, Tibetan Terrier and a French Bulldog. These included multi group winners and BIS winner Ch Araki Fabulous Willy, who later went on to win BIS Crufts 2007.

Mark has been involved in various show committees and was show manager of Houndshow, the largest Hound Show in the world for 15 years. He also served as chairman of the Afghan Hound Association, the UK parent club and oldest registered Afghan Hound club in the world.
